

You - I
Eh eh eh
You eh eh I eh eh

Oh, father, tell me
Why I'm hanging here
I just got out of dirty and poisoned years

Oh, madam, why you steal my cornerstone
I can't find back to my lion throne

Well, you can't decide between dark or bright You promised me before
to close these broken doors

Please show me my way home and don't misuse my naive trust when I'm gone

You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
You and I are through - I shouldn't come back to you
I shouldn't come back
to you

Oh, father, I bet this is my last shot at regret roulette
What I've done to become an upset silhouette

Oh, madam, why you use my adolescence heatlessness
My baffled look brought me back Oh, I'm past obsessed

naive trust when I'm gone

You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
to you
I shouldn't come back
to you

You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
You and I are through - I shouldn't come back
to you
to you
